KIDNAPING AND MURDER OF BOY FINALLY SOLVED

Two Wooster, Ohio, Men Admit Crime Committed 14 Months Ago

Wooster, Ohio, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Four-year-old Melvin Horst, hunted since he disappeared nearly 14 months ago, was slain the day he disappeared by one of two men during a drinking party, according to signed statements attributed to them by Special Assistant Prosecutor Walter J. Mougey.

Mougey announced today that Earl Conald, 42-year-old former railroad brakeman, and Charles Hanna of Wooster, had made sworn statements in which each declared the other killed the child.

Their alleged revelations came after they had been questioned almost continuously since Wednesday morning. They were questioned as the result of a new story told by Junior, 10-year-old son of Charles Hanna. Hanna signed a statement in which he said Conald coaxed the Horst boy into an automobile in a garage near the Conald home and slew him, Mougey said.

Conald declared that it was Hanna who put the boy in the car and then cried:

"My God! I believe I've killed him."

Neither told what became of the boy, Mougey said, Conald confessing that he had been "drinking too much" to remember.

A desperate search for the body was under way today in order that murder charges might be filed against both men, the Assistant Prosecutor announced.

In the event the body is not found Mougey is prepared to file either manslaughter or child stealing charges.

Mougey said he had not established a motive.

Conald and Hanna agreed for the most part in the details of their stories except when it came to naming the child-slayer. Their statements purported to show they had driven around, had a "few drinks" and finally came to the garage back of the home of Frank Frey.

They took some more drinks in the garage, during which Melvin appeared, according to their stories. Both agreed that Melvin was whisked into the automobile and either choked or beaten to death, but each laid the blame on the other.

Their accounts were equally vague as to what happened to the boy's body.

Boy Frightened

By their accounts, they visited the Horst home later and at about the time the entire village, aroused by the pealing of bells, was turning out to begin search for the boy. It was the continued questioning of Junior that led to the arrest of Hanna and Conald. The playmate of Melvin finally asserted that he had seen the missing boy in the garage. He had been forced to keep his knowledge secret by his father, according to Mougey.

The four-year-old boy disappeared from his home in Orrville late in the afternoon of Dec. 27, 1927. Search began a once. Hundreds of false clues were traced down.

Once, Wayne county officials thought they had solved the mystery when Junior Hanna told a story that he had witnessed the kidnapping of Melvin by Elias and Arthur Arnold, neighbors.

The officials charged the Arnolds with kidnapping Melvin to gain revenge against his uncle, Roy Horst then Marshall, who had arrested them several times. The Arnolds were put on trial and were convicted chiefly on the testimony of the Hanna boy. They spent several months in Ohio penitentiary but won a new trial and acquittal.

Month after month passed without any tangible clue. All the time, Melvin's parents kept up hope that their son was safe.

County officials and newspapermen continued the investigation, and at last were able to break down the story that the Hanna boy had so stoutly maintained in the Arnold's trials. As quickly as Junior's new story was obtained, the action investigating Conald and Junior's father was begun and their signed statements were obtained today.

PITTSBURGH CAB DRIVERS BATTLE WITH OFFICERS

Many Injured During Fight: Casualty List Totals 89

Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb. 14.—(UP)—Renewed rioting was feared today as a bitterly-fought strike of taxicab drivers entered its 34th day.

Cabs were withdrawn from the streets last night after a day of strife which was ended only when police hurled tear gas bombs into a mob of a thousand strikers and sympathizers.

Steel-helmeted deputies are accompanying the drivers to protect them.

Yesterday's riots brought the official casualty list in the strike to 86.

Police battled wild crowds in one district for three hours. Seven riot calls sent every police reserve in the city to the section, and mounted patrolmen charged the mob time and again in vain.

Several policemen were slightly wounded, and witnesses said scores of men staggered about the streets bleeding from injuries.

One cab was burned and five others were wrecked and towed away amid showers of bricks.

At last the police gathered their forces and dispersed the combatants with tear gas.

Ten men who were clubbed into submission and one woman were held by police on charges of disorderly conduct.

The taxi drivers struck a month ago, demanding 40 percent of their receipt as wages.

Berlin, Feb. 14.—(UP)—A taxicab union call for a city-wide strike was answered today by about 5,000 of Berlin's cab drivers. The drivers demand a wage increase.

Marloth Winner Of Speaking Contest

Werner S. Marloth of the Dixon offices of the Illinois Northern Utilities Company ranked high among seven contestants from the Dixon and Mendota districts who last evening engaged in the first preliminary of the national speaking contest in this city. The subject of the addresses was, "The Electric Utilities Contribution to My Community, State and Nation."

E. J. Heeger of the Mendota district was awarded second place last evening and the two speakers will be heard before a board of judges Monday evening to select a winner from the district meet to enter the state competition. Other employees competing in the contest were Edward Fitzgerald, Mrs. Marjorie Bennett, Martin Nelson, T. H. Taylor and W. A. Pribe. The judges of the contest were Rev. J. Frank Young, Attorney Martin J. Gannon and Elbert L. Fulmer. Several interested listeners attended the preliminary oratorical contest.

CHICAGO'S CITY EMPLOYEES PAID PARTIALLY TODAY

Money Borrowed From License Funds To Give Fortnight's Pay

Chicago, Feb. 14.—(UP)—Oblong Valentines of blue inscribed with figures, dollar signs and the signature of the Controller of the City of Chicago brought jubilation to 18,000 public employees today.

Their long-deferred and almost despaired of payday climaxed a brief period crowded with developments in the financial crisis. Within an hour after City Treasurer Charles S. Peterson announced that $1,849,005 would be disbursed as pay for the first two weeks of January, Mayor William Hale Thompson was reported definitely to have capitulated to the citizens' "relief committee" headed by Attorney Silas H. Strawn.

That was the bright side of the situation. Still in the shadow of uncertainty were the other 25,000 workers in county and school departments for whom Valentine's Day was only another bleak and impoverished Friday.

Bankers' Aid

Hopes of relief for them dwindled with the statement of Herbert C. Heller, New York investment banker, indicating his firm would not purchase tax anticipation warrants. That development dashed hopes that some $27,000,000 could be raised soon with his aid.

"You cannot expect one to buy of a corporation when the directors and stockholders are quarreling," Heller said on his arrival here yesterday from Kansas City. "It is of major importance that a local accord be reached. Chicago is a rich city and when everyone is satisfied with the situation there will be purchasers for your tax warrants."

Ironically, the accord the New York banker spoke of seemed about to come to pass soon after he had spoken.

The Mayor was reported to have selected Corporation Counsel Samuel Stetson, City Controller George K. Schmidt and Alderman John S. Clark to meet today with a group from the Strawn committee composed of Strawn, Robert F. Carr and Ernest F. Graham and School Trustee Lewis E. Myers. Out of that meeting is expected to come some tangible program for rescue of bankrupt Chicago.

Some Partly Paid.

Plans, programs, monetary maneuvers and all the rest of the machinery of relief paled beside the fact that 18,000 city employees actually were being paid part of their salaries, however.

The money, the first they had received since late December, had accumulated in city coffers from license fees and vehicle taxes.

Joy was at home with 6,715 policemen, 2,680 firemen, and 8,596 other workers. For dreary weeks their families have been forced to pinch every penny. Some have been in actual want. At least there was money, little enough, but seemingly a fortune because it came as a surprise.

The 25,000 county and school employees the former unpaid since Dec. 15 and the latter since Dec. 24, hoped against hope that the Strawn-administration conference today would bring similar action in their behalf.

A proposal to grant credit to county employees at restaurants of a big local chain received favorable consideration both from company and county officials.

"At least we wouldn't starve if we had meal tickets," a spokesman for the employees said.

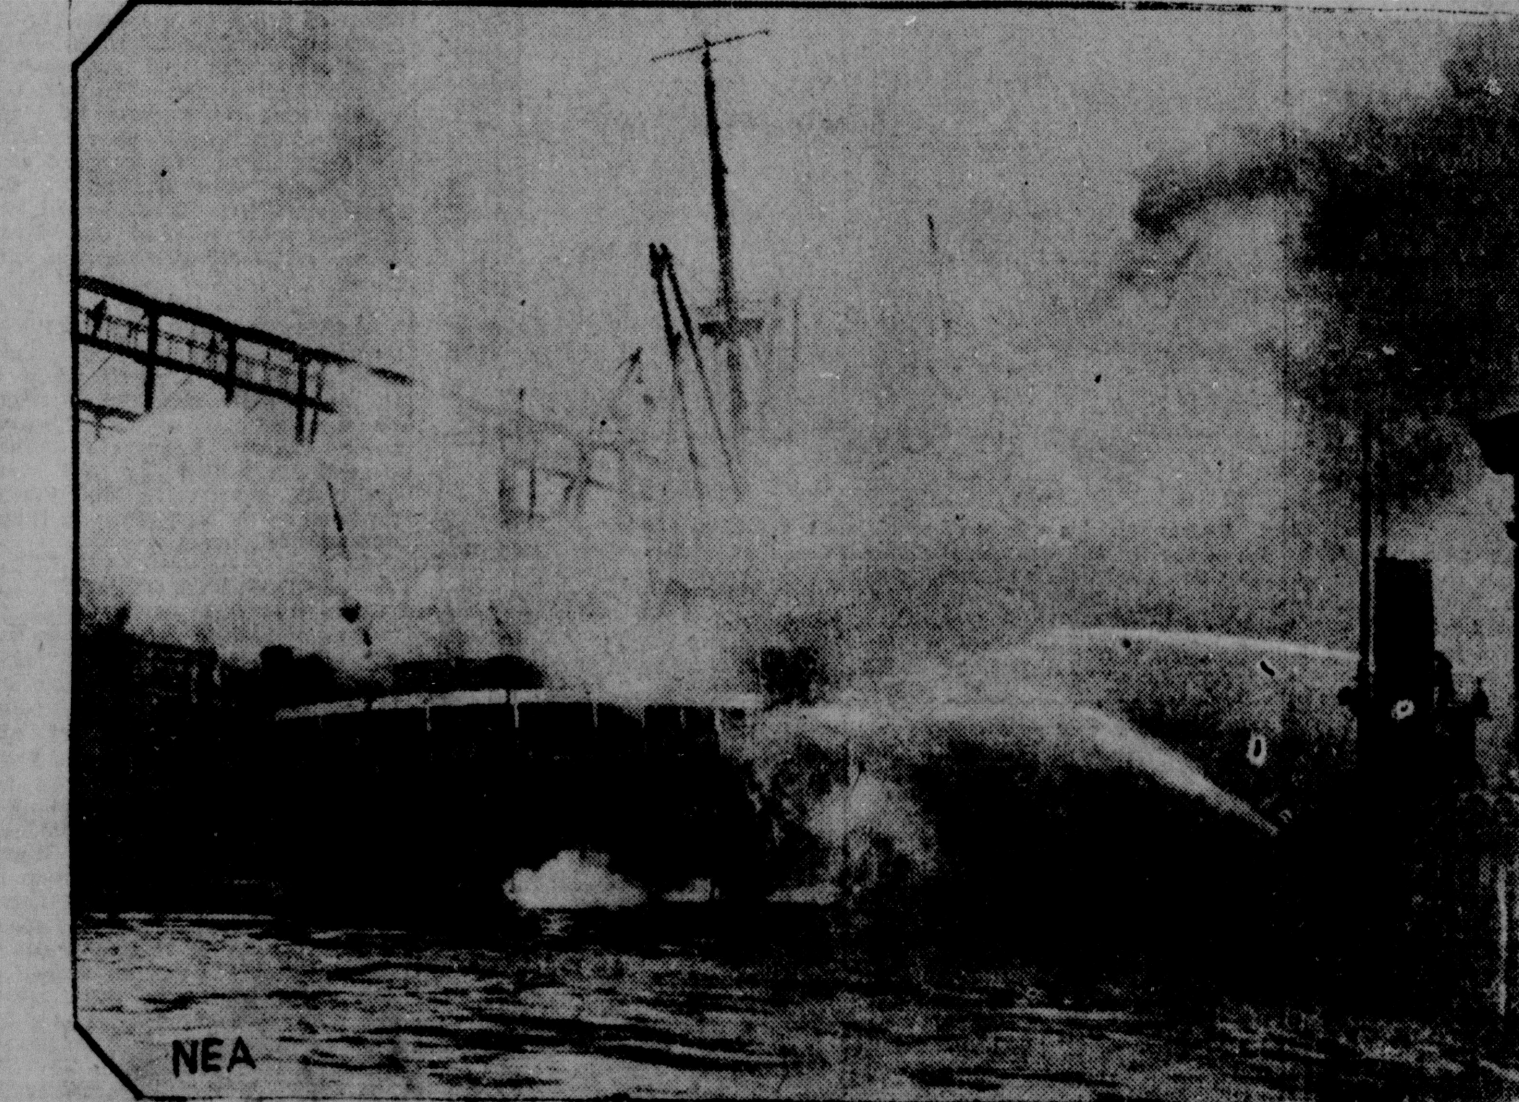

After the payments to 18,000 employees today, the local governments still will owe $11,900,000 in unpaid salaries. That sum while considerable is only a drop in the bucket compared to the $300,000,000 debt which stares the city in the face.

Entertainment For Moose This Evening

The entertainment committee of the Dixon lodge of Moose have arranged a special program for members of the lodge and their families for this evening at their hall. A Valentine party will be held. The Reynolds Wire Company basketball team will meet the Fulton Independents as one of the feature attractions of the program. Moving pictures will be shown and the program will conclude with the serving of refreshments.

LINER BURNING AT NEW YORK PIER

Listing badly, with smoke and fire belching from her under-decks, the North German Lloyd liner Munchen is shown in this striking picture as she sank at her pier in the North River, at New York, shortly after completing a trans-Atlantic voyage from Bremen. A fireman was killed, five were injured and several were missing, according to early reports, after a series of explosions raked the huge vessel and ignited the inflammable shellac in the hold. Several aboard the fireboat pictured at the right were hurled overboard by the force of the blasts on the liner.

THREE MEN DIE IN HOLDUPS THIS MORN IN DETROIT

Two Guards and Robber Killed: One Bandit Thought Wounded

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Three men, two of them special guards and the third a member of a four-man holdup gang who preferred death to capture, lost their lives last night in a gun battle during a hold-up of the main office of the Western Union Telegraph Company at Congress and Shelby streets.

A patrolman who sought to halt the fleeing men was wounded twice and one of the three robbers who escaped also is believed to have been shot.

The men escaped with about $250. Police say they are the same ones who held up the office ten days ago.

The dead are Jess L. Catlin, 38, an operative of the American Still Alarm Company; John E. Scott, 46, another operative of the company, and the unidentified robber who police say took his own life with the gun he had used to shoot Scott and Catlin a moment before.

The man had been wounded seriously by the guards.

SENATE APPROVES HUGHES AFTER A STORMY DEBATE

His Enemies Lose Battle To Keep Jurist Off Supreme Bench

BY RICHARD L. TURNER

United Press Staff Correspondent

Washington, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Safely past the barrier of Senate approval, Charles Evans Hughes will take office on Monday, February 24, as the eleventh Chief Justice of the United States.

A fiery, four-day denunciation of the distinguished jurist as the very personification of the spirit of "big business," ended last night in a vote of 52 to 26 for confirmation of his nomination.

Opposition, steadily growing and recalling in its intensity the battle that developed in the Senate when Andrew Jackson nominated Roger B. Taney, famed author of the Dred Scott decision, for the Chief Justiceship, proved numerically incapable of refusing confirmation.

Franklin gratified, Mr. Hughes, in New York bespoke his appreciation of the high honor and vast responsibility that had come to him and added a public acknowledgement of his thanks for "the generous expressions" that he said he had received from all parts of the nation.

"The ideals and principles relating to public service with which I entered public life twenty-five years ago and which I have tried to exemplify in public office," he said, "I hold unaltered."

Opposition Surprise.

When William Howard Taft resigned a week ago Monday because of his failing health and President Hoover submitted the nomination of Mr. Hughes, it seemed probable that his appointment would be approved by the Senate without opposition. The determined objection that arose came as a most surprising development.

In the vote of the Judiciary committee all the Democrats and administration Republicans voted for approval, but Chairman Norris and Senator Blaine of Wisconsin, independent Republicans voted for rejection. Quickly they were joined by other members of the independent group, and one by one Democratic members took their stand with them.

The views of the oppositionists were expressed in vigorously worded addresses, to which there were occasional emphatic replies from the administration group.

The attack was centered upon Hughes' economic views. He was assailed as a champion of the nation's corporate interests and of the rights of property. Norris declared him "not fit to sit in judgment in a contest between organized wealth

MAYWOOD BANK SHORTAGE NOW PUT AT $173,000

Search for the Missing Girl, Cashier Is Widened Today

Maywood, Ill., Feb. 14.—(UP)—

With the disclosure that the books of the People's State Bank here were short $173,000, authorities widened their search for Miss Lavern D. Lindgren, 25-year-old cashier of the institution, today.

Information reached authorities that the pretty brunette had left the state and was in a sanitarium in another city at the same time that Elmer P. Langguth, 35-year-old president of the bank, announced he would assume all blame for the shortage.

Despite Langguth's statement a second warrant charging Miss Lindgren with embezzlement was issued. It was signed by O. O. Lane, a bank director, and accused Miss Lindgren of accepting deposits knowing the bank to be insolvent. Bond was set at $10,000.

Maywood was agog over disappearance of Miss Lindgren. Her three-story home here was visited by many curious persons. She acquired the house after her sensational rise from telephone operator to cashier in three years. Miss Lindgren formerly worked in a restaurant, later in an office. Her first position in the bank was that of switchboard operator, tendered her by Langguth after he met her at a party.

With the finding of additional irregularities in the institution's books, the directors retracted their statement that depositors would be paid in full and withheld further comment. At least a week will be necessary to complete the audit, it was said.

Langguth, who is married and has two children, was freed on $10,000 bond pending action by the grand jury. Miss Lindgren disappeared the day the bank was closed by State Auditor Oscar Nelson.

Tax Rate About Ten Cents Higher In City

The tax rate for the city of Dixon including school district No. 170 will be almost ten cents higher this year than last, according to the figures which have been compiled in County Clerk Fred G. Dimick's office and which were made public today.

The tax rate this year amounts to 3.74 per hundred dollars valuation.

Last year's rate for the city, including the school district, No. 170 was $3.64, making this year's rate 9.7 cents higher than that of last year. Special deputies in County Clerk Dimick's office are rushing work on the tax books of the various townships to complete the spreading of the taxes which will then be turned over to County Treasurer Dorcas Thompson.

IS ANNIVERSARY OF BLOODIEST OF GANG'S ATTACKS

Detectives Hear Rumor Of Threatened Reprisals Today

Chicago, Feb. 14.—(AP)—A sinister report hummed along the gang world grapevine today, hinting bloody revenge for what happened last St. Valentine's Day.

Police heard it from the stool pigeons who roost in the underworld and fly to the law with crumbs of information, and this is what they heard:

Weeks ago word went to the four corners of the nation for the friends of the George (Bugs) Moran gang to come here, with their guns oiled and ready to shoot. There was to be a reprisal, a "revenge party" for the slaying just a year ago of the seven Moran gangsters.

Details Lacking.

Like so many grapevine rumors, details were lacking. The police were informed, and were able in part to substantiate the report, that members of the Al (Scarface) Capone gang, which has been blamed for the 1929 massacre, were keeping out of sight.

There was nothing to indicate what way the reprisal, if really planned, was to be made. Detectives pointed out, however, that gangsters have a high sense of drama, and that the execution of a spectacular crime on the first anniversary of gangland's bloodiest attack would be in keeping with gangster notions of the fitness of such things.

No particular added precautions were being taken, police believing their general drive against all gunmen would be sufficient to keep the "big guns" silent.

Two Robbers Killed.

Two robbers were killed last night, attesting the growing earnestness of the present drive to clean out the criminals.

Police killed one man as he was in the act of holding up a cab driver. A tradesman slew another who had entered the store with a gun in his hand.

It was a satisfactory ending, from the police standpoint, of the first five days of their city wide foray against criminals. During the day 12 persons were arrested bringing the total for the five days to well over 3,000. Seven picked up yesterday carried weapons and will be held to the grand jury. Twenty-seven gun carriers already are under indictment.

Raid Teamsters' Union.

New developments in the investigation of the Coal Teamsters, Chauffeurs & Helpers Union, of which Geo. Barker, alleged gunman and racketeer, is business agent, were hinted when detectives for the State's Attorney raided the union's headquarters on a subpoena issued by Judge John P. McGorty.

Four officials of the Coal Merchants Association appeared at a special session of the grand jury late yesterday and it was indicated their testimony caused today's raid. The union is not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. Barker was arrested Wednesday night with members of the O'Donnell gang and was named in true bills reported voted against gun-toters yesterday.

Some weeks ago the coal merchants were anticipating a strike when they threatened to cease negotiations with the union unless Barker was ousted. Despite the threats, however, they granted a pay increase and signed a new two-year agreement on January 24th.

High Pressure Gas Main Broken Today

E. C. Risley's barge, which he used in dredging from the river bed for the "fill" at the new Dixon high school, broke loose from its moorings below the Peoria avenue bridge early today, floated down the river and broke the Illinois Northern Utilities Company's high pressure gas main to the north side. The break in the main, which is used during peak load hours, made it impossible to pump extra gas to the north side and consumers in that part of the city were inconvenienced at meal times because of the low pressure. The repair of the main will be difficult and until it is completed consumers north of the river will find the pressure lower than usual at meal times. Repairs to the main will be made as quickly as is possible.

PREDICTS GLACIAL AGE

Duluth, Minn.—(UP)—A glacial age that will wipe Duluth and other Northwest cities off the earth was predicted by Walter L. Payne, world traveler and explorer recently. The glaciation is at least 200,000 centuries away, he said.

CUSTOMS AGENT'S
CASE MAY REACH
JURY TOMORROWDefense Admits Confession
Agent's Fire

Duluth, Minn., Feb. 14.—The fate of Emmett J. White, customs agent charged with the murder of Henry Virkkula, confectioneer, shot to death last June near International Falls as he and his wife and two children were returning from a vacation trip, probably will be placed in the hands of the jury tomorrow.

Prosecuting attorneys said they would complete their case so the defense could begin final arguments late today and complete them tomorrow.

The defense admitted yesterday Virkkula was killed by three bullets fired by White and moved for dismissal of the case on the plea that the evidence presented did not show any intent to kill. They argued that customs officers have a right to stop and search automobiles and use whatever force necessary. Judge William Cant denied the motion.

Mrs. Virkkula testified she thought her husband was trying to stop his car when one of the shotgun slugs which rattled the machine struck him in the head. The defense objected and the testimony was ordered stricken.

The 29 slugs which struck the car missed her two children, Alice, 11, and Bernice, 8, because they were lying on the floor of the car asleep, Mrs. Virkkula said.

Sheriff Hugh Reidy of International Falls told the jury that all of the bullets struck the car more than 18 inches above the gasoline tank. From this evidence prosecuting attorneys argued that no attempt was made to disable the car.

Testimony brought out that the customs agents found two pints of milk after they searched the car when it plunged into the ditch as Virkkula slumped under the steering wheel.

TRANSIENTS ON MOVE

A general exodus of transients, tramps or hoboes from Chicago was felt keenly at the city hall lockup last night when strangers, totalling 38 in number, applied at police headquarters, were registered and given sleeping quarters. The number is the largest that has been accommodated in a single night this winter.

Chief of Police J. D. Van Bibber issued an order today in which he instructed all of the police officers to keep the transients on the move. "They appear to be coming out of Chicago and will not be allowed to stay in Dixon," the chief stated this morning as he glanced over the register and counted 18 names of strangers who slept at the city hall last night. "No matter whether the Chicago police are ordering them out or not, they will not be permitted to loiter about Dixon and the general order is to keep them on the move."

SENATE APPROVES

and those who toil." There were frequent references to the fact that Hughes resigned from the Supreme bench in 1916 to become the Presidential nominee of the Republican party.

Two Parallels. The attack upon the Hughes nomination has two notable parallels in the history of the Senate. The first was the opposition to Chief Justice Taney and the second, that which developed when Associate Justice Louis D. Brandeis was nominated.

For nearly four months the Taney battle raged in the Senate. Taney was denounced, as was Hughes, for his economic views. With the slavery question lying dormant behind the Missouri compromise, northern Senators found objection in the fact that Taney was a Maryland Democrat. There was objection, too, because he was a Catholic.

Finally, his nomination was confirmed and later he became the author of the Dred Scott decision, which dissolved the Missouri compromise and brought the slavery question again to the floors of Congress.

Brandeis, nominated in 1916 by President Wilson, was attacked, too, for his economic beliefs, which were considered too liberal.

He, too, was confirmed and since assuming office his views have proved widely different from the body of opinion of the court. "Holmes and Brandeis dissenting" has become a familiar phrase when decisions are announced.

Hughes' career began in New York. In 1907 he became Governor of the state. He was re-elected in 1909, but resigned in 1910 to accept appointment from President Taft to the Supreme Bench.

This he relinquished in 1916 to run for the presidency, and, defeated at the polls, he returned to his private legal practice, entering public life again as Secretary of State under Harding.

Coolidge appointed him in 1926 to the Arbitration Court at Tre Hague. In 1928 he was elected by the Council and Assembly of the League of Nations to an Associate Justiceship on the bench of the World Court, a post he is relinquishing in becoming the nation's Chief Justice.

MOONLIGHT RAIN

ONCE in Chapala there was a moon and music;
And before the clouds blew
Heard to the moon
Guitar and harp and violins
And voices
Were singing on the beach
Before the rain
Under the moonlight, singing of a swallow
And still were singing after the lake-rain fell.
Singing of a little deer that comes down from the mountain
Only to places that are very quiet.

Happy Surprise for Mrs. George Ransom

February 13th proved to be a lucky day for Mrs. George Ransom of Nelson, when about twenty-five friends and relatives arrived at noon with well filled baskets and "happy birthday" greetings.

After the delicious dinner had been served and enjoyed, Mrs. Ransom was asked to unpack another basket filled with many gifts and valentines. The dinner table was beautified with a lovely bouquet of carnations and sweet peas, which had been sent by Mrs. M. W. Missman with best wishes as a gift to Mrs. Ransom. Mrs. Missman being unable to be present because of illness. What might be termed an historical afternoon followed as Mrs. Ransom was asked to tell her birthplace and any interesting pioneer incidents. After she had related her parents' trip from Massachusetts to the "wonderful prairies" of Illinois, and her birth in war times on the place where they settled (now the Atkinson farm), which was her home until she went to her present home which she has occupied ever since, each guest was asked to do the same. Representatives of New York and Pennsylvania were numerous and some found they had been born only a few miles apart. Some of the next generation who had no "history" vied for honors by still living at their birthplaces, one guest being present whose birthplace and home had also been her father's. As the sun began to sink in the west the guests departed wishing Mrs. Ransom many such pleasant birthdays.

Wawokiye Club Met on Wednesday

The Wawokiye Club held an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. Leland Brink, east of Dixon Wednesday, Feb. 12.

A delicious picnic dinner was served at noon, the hostess serving chicken and biscuit as her part of the meal.

A large group of members and friends were present in spite of the cloudy weather and bad roads.

The business meeting was called to order by the president.

After scripture, roll call and minutes of the last meeting and the business of the afternoon was disposed of.

The club decided to send fruit or some treat, once a week to a young man who is now a patient at the Dixon hospital.

The program committee took charge after the business meeting and a lovely program was enjoyed.

Stories and anecdotes of Lincoln were given and discussed.

Two guessing games were given. Mrs. Julie Hill won the prize offered in one of the games.

A piano solo was then given after which Lytle Solover, a little 5-year-old friend of the club, sang two popular songs which were very much enjoyed by all present. The program was closed by a very clever reading on "Gossip."

The guests departed thanking Mrs. Brink for the very pleasant day spent at her home.

The club will meet again in two weeks. The program committee for that meeting will be Mrs. Brink, chairman, with Mrs. J. E. Hill and Mrs. Edward Stanley assisting.

Fan, Weapon of Love And Romance, Back

Chicago, Feb. 14.—(AP)—'Twill seem strange for the flappers to flirt with fans, those naive weapons of love that grandmother used, yet those with their ear to the ground of coming styles, insist the fan is coming back.

Prof. Minna Schmidt of the University of Chicago, specializing in the history of costumes, hauled out the breeze makers before her students yesterday, and taught them the fan language. If the fan does come back, the information Prof. Schmidt presented will be invaluable to young ladies. In part it is:

Fan twirled in left hand: "I wish to get rid of you."
Fan moved across forehead: "We are being watched."
Fan moved across cheek: "I love you."

Fan closed: "I have changed my mind."
Fan opened wide: "Wait for me."

Twin Sisters to Celebrate Eighty-Second Birthday Here

Mrs. Elmira Anderson, 321 E. First street, has received word from her twin sister, Mrs. Alvira Leedle of Battle Creek, Michigan, that Mrs. Leedle and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Archie Leedle, are leaving Battle Creek and will reach Dixon Monday some time to visit at the home of Mrs. Anderson. On Wednesday, Feb. 19th, Mesdames Leedle and Anderson will celebrate their eighty-second birthdays. It is not often that twins have the happiness of celebrating birthdays at this age. One or the other may attain this majority, but both living to celebrate birthdays at this age is rare. Mrs. Anderson went last summer to visit her sister, Mrs. Leedle in Battle Creek, who was very ill at that time. She recovered but is still not very hale and hearty, and the trip from Battle Creek is most tiresome.

Unity Guild in Pleasant Meeting

The Unity Guild had a pleasant enjoyable all-day meeting with Mrs. George Shaver yesterday. The picnic dinner at noon was a happy feature with Valentine decorations and flowers.

After the brief business session, the program was turned over to Mrs. A. G. Burnham and she gave her comrades a delightful afternoon. She gave some short patriotic readings and then told of her trip via motor to New York last year. One of the places which held great interest for her was the Fraunces Inn, favorite meeting place in the stirring olden times, of Washington, and his officers. As yesterday's meeting of the Guild occurred so near to Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays her theme was indeed well chosen. At this Inn Washington also met his soldiers and officers at the close of the Revolution and bade them farewell.

Tuning in on the Talkies by Walthill

It started when Irene Bordoni transferred "Paris" to America. Now there are "Fifty Million Frenchmen" on the New York stage.

"The Great Divide" in pictures is about "fifty-fifty," talking and acting.

Players in the talkies actuate the microphone through greater fondness for "Jack" than "For the Love of Mike."

"The Song of the West" will be rendered by Vitaphone with Vivienne Segal voicing her so prano talents.

In "Dark Streets" Jack Mulhail played a dual role. In his next picture he had "Twin Beds" in which to make the characters comfortable.

For "Double Feature" Day "When Husbands Flirt" "Away Goes Prudence"

Fence-Rail Talkies Farmer Silo says: "I'm just that stubborn, I'll give a woman a fight for her cigarette or a pinch of snuff; but no chewing tobacco."

More Fiction Than Fact "The Thirteenth Commandment" allows more for breakage. "Mountains of Manhattan" are alive with social climbers. "Man in the Rough" usually swears a good game of golf. "Beauty Shoppers" know every wrinkle in bargain hunting.

Telling About New Talkies Winnie Lightner and Joe E. Brown will lead the fun-making in "Hold Everything."

Lotti Loder is a European movie star Warner Bros. will present here next season.

John Barrymore, in "Show of Shows," quotes Shakespeare as the first words in the talkies

A SALUTE TO THE AUTO.

This is the season of the year when the automobile show bourgeois and flowers. In city after city, from one coast to the other, halls are being filled with shiny, glittering models, and prospective buyers are sauntering through to inspect them.

We haven't yet quite got used to our automobiles. The annual shows still thrill us. This, after all, is as it should be; the automobile has turned our whole civilization around, and it is no more than right that we should continue to make a big fuss over it.

The automobile began life, some three decades ago, as a toy. Then it became a luxury for the well-to-do man. And then, in no time at all, it became every man's necessity—and the end is not yet. This last stage has come within the last 20 years. It has worked an incredible change on us in that time, and it is still working. Probably it will be another 20 years before the ultimate effects of the automobile are fully apparent.

Twenty years ago America was famous as a country of bad roads. There was a sharp, clear dividing line, then, between the city dweller and the country dweller. The small town was isolated, the farm was often removed from the main currents of life as effectively as if it were enclosed behind the Chinese wall. Among ordinary people of limited means a trip of 100 miles was an event. Probably the majority of all native-born Americans had never been more than that far away from home in all their lives.

But now look at us! From end to end the nation is criss-crossed by wide bands of concrete and macadam. A smooth gravel road that would have been bragged about in 1910 is apologized for now. The city dweller cannot be distinguished from the country dweller—not by his clothing, not by his speech, not by his familiarity with the fads, foibles and slang of the modern world. The small town, losing its isolation, has moved in next to the suburbs. The farmer has forgotten his old imprisonment.

More than that—we have become a nation of rovers. From April to November the rubber-shod wheels of millions of Argonauts roll up and down the country's highways. The Nebraska farmer can talk to you about the beauties of New York's Finger Lake region. The New England bank clerk can tell you how the fishing is in the streams of Michigan. The southern mechanic can describe the marvels of the Yellowstone.

Nor is that all. The city man is finding himself able to leave his cramped quarters close to the factory and find a place far out in the suburbs, where his children can have fresh air and trees and green grass. The joys of the open country are his, now. He is not tied to the immediate neighborhood of his job any longer.

Small wonder, then, that we make big events out of our auto shows! We ought to. The automobile belongs on our national coat of arms. It has started us on a new exciting pathway.

SHERIFF MILLER'S ABILITY.

Anyone in Lee County who has watched the administration of the Sheriff's office know that Sheriff Ward Miller has demonstrated a great deal of ability as a law enforcement officer. Now it seems that his activities are attracting attention in other parts of the state. For example, the Rockford Morning Star has the following to say:

"Sheriff Ward Miller, of Lee county, seems to be particularly adept at apprehending liquor runners in his territory. The alleged carriers of rum are reported to be from Rockford in most instances. That is not a sweet compliment for us, but it does not detract from the marked ability of the Lee sheriff. His record of catching booze runners on the highways is phenomenal in this day when illicit traffic of all kinds is equipped with the best money can purchase. Usually rum runners have the advantage of high-priced, speedy machines which often distance the slower automobiles of the authorities. Not so in Sheriff Miller's area, however. In a remarkably efficient way he is able to determine who the 'runners' are, and then he proceeds to go out and 'get his man.' Sheriff Miller should inherit the commendation of his own and surrounding counties for the splendid work he is doing."

The span of life is still fixed at 80 years, says a mortality statistician. That may be true for the men folks, but grandma just started being kittenish at that age.

Women are not going in for business life more, says a writer, because they cannot endure being shut up in an office. You can't shut them up at home, either.

A vegetarian who neither smokes nor drinks has just celebrated his 101st birthday. It must have seemed longer than that, however.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY BOCK

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

The little folks who came in sight began to sing with all their might. The Tinies stood and listened. Not a wee voice went amiss. It really was a pretty song and very smoothly rolled along. Perhaps you'd like to know the words. All right. They went like this:

"Real happy Valentines are we, as you will very shortly see. We come to see folks once a year and this is our big day. We make folks happy. That's our aim. If we did not, it would be a shame. Now, if you Tinies like our song, just loudly shout, hurrah!"

The Tinies promptly joined in cheers that almost seemed to crack their ears. "Hurrah! Hurrah!" they shouted. "Welcome here, you Valentines. We think your song was simply great. Please sing some more. Don't hesitate. We like the swinging tune real well and also like the lines."

So, once again the wee folks sang.

Real sweetly all their voices rang. The scarecrow, too, was very thrilled. He tried to join the song. His voice however, seemed real flat and Scouty shouted, "Don't do that! The song was fine till you joined in and now it sounds all wrong."

This made the Valentines laugh loud. The scarecrow very calmly bowed and said, "Oh, I'm so sorry. I will gladly take the blame." The Valentines then said, "Now we will move as quick as quick can be, and show you how each one of us can use a little frame."

Into the frames they promptly crawled while every little Tiny sprawled upon the ground to watch them. It was quite a sight to see. When every one was in his place a smile spread on each Tiny's face. And then they heard wee voices shout, "Now, Valentines are we!"

(The Scarecrow has some bad luck in the next story.)

MAN SELECTS WRONG FOODS, CHEMIST SAYS

Animal's Instinct Tells What to Eat, But Humans Err

Columbus, O., (UP)—Animals may rely upon instinct to select proper nourishment but not humans, avers Dr. John F. Lyman, professor of agricultural chemistry at Ohio State University.

The animal has the advantage because ordinarily it has the selection of only two foods, one good and the other injurious, while man may choose any of several, he says. And repeatedly man picks the wrong kind. "A fallacy," Prof. Lyman continues, "is the belief that our Federal and state nutrition without any cooperation from the consumer. These laws protect from the fraud of mislabeling and from the use of adulterants, but beyond that they do not guarantee food values."

People continue to err, Dr. Lyman points out, in believing that costs and food values are correlated. A dime spent for milk is a wiser purchase than a dollar spent for mushrooms, even though they be roadstools, he observes.

The road to good health, according to Dr. Lyman's specifications, is paved with the following materials to be used daily.

A pint of milk; fresh fruit equal to an apple or orange; abundance of vegetables, especially of the cabbage, lettuce and spinach variety; moderate amounts only of white bread, sugar, lard and other "purified" foods; and sufficient other foods such as meat, cereals, fats, and bread to dull the appetite and adorn the meal.

Balanced rations are the needs of an empty stomach rather than the specialties urged by faddists, the chemist concludes.

Education at the expense of the State is the birthright of every child born in the United States of America. But in raising the standard of intelligence of the general population we have introduced much keener competition in the years when education was reserved for the few. Competition, however, is not alone intellectual. People of equal mental, educational or intellectual attainment still have the problem of physical perfection or handicap. The graduates from our schools, as they enter the field of commerce, science or arts, can achieve only to the extent that their physical and physiological developments permits the full use of their scholastic attainments.

This phase of a well rounded educational requirement has been neglected, and only too often good work in school has been at the expense of physical development. Further, getting and education in spite of handicapping deformity has demanded a greater expenditure of energy than would be necessary had the handicaps been recognized and corrected. Now it is evident that educational programs should be changed so that a successful and normal physical development is made a compulsory requirement. So it is suggested and recommended that courses of study and curricula include periodic examinations by competent physicians. Each student would be graded on a basis of the average normal corresponding to the marks given in grading intellectual subjects in which credits and advancement in class can be secured only by work of a passing grade. Educators must appreciate the demand of society for a well rounded product of the educational machinery. Unless the student is able to compete successfully with his equally well educated competitor, the race is lost. Therefore, education must include proper normal and uninterrupted physical development, and credits for this development must become part of the general gradings of our students in school, college and university.

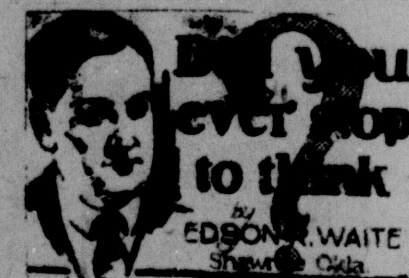

In order to remove from the handicapped student physical disabilities which would require from him extraordinary physical labor and nervous exhaustion, these handicaps must be early recognized and remedial measures instituted. These curative and preventive measures would form part of the responsibility of the state if parents were unable or unwilling to provide them. At the same time the courses selected by the student would be regulated by his physical grades, so that no student would be prepared for a life task for which he was clearly handicapped. Regular physical examination, and school work based on physical condition will greatly increase the value of our educational system.

Eunice Now Wants a Million

Eunice Pringle, youthful dancer, who is suing Alexander Pantages, theatrical man, for $1,000,000 damages as the result of an attack she says the millionaire made upon her, is pictured here in court at Los Angeles. The damage suit is expected to attract almost as much attention as did Pantages' trial on criminal charges, on which he was convicted and sent to prison.

C. F. SKIRVIN, EDITOR OF THE SANTA ANA (CALIFORNIA)
TIMES, SAYS:

THAT your "thinking" is the motive power of progress. Without it we would have stagnation. Man would have remained primitive. It's the restless, provocative instinct in us that creates a dissatisfaction. No man, rich or poor, is satisfied. He no sooner scores a victory over one problem than he seeks another.

It's our thinking that improves conditions, overcomes impediments, tests our mentality, defeats resistance, and contributes to the welfare of mankind.

Evidently the author of this newspaper feature visualized this condition when he asked the question: "Did You Ever Stop to Think?" It is the thinker big business in seeking. And the thinker usually gets the job. IT'S EASY TO DRIFT DOWN THE STREAM OF LIFE. BUT THE OBJECTIVE THAT IS WORTH WHILE IS ALWAYS AGAINST THE CURRENT.

ARIZONA'S STATEHOOD
On February 14, 1912, President Taft signed the proclamation formally admitting Arizona to the Union.

Although the people of that state adopted a constitution as early as 1891, in anticipation of admission to the Union as a state, Congress refused to grant the application. Bills were finally passed by Congress, however, in 1904-50, and again in 1905-06, providing for the admission of Arizona and New Mexico. The voters of Arizona rejected this plan.

At a constitutional convention in 1910, Arizona prepared a constitution which was regarded as probably the most radical instrument ever formulated for the administration of a state. One provision sanctioned the recall of judges.

Congress then passed a joint resolution which provided for the admission of Arizona, but President Taft vetoed it on account of the clause dealing with the recall of judges. Congress thereupon passed a second resolution providing for the admission on condition the objectionable clause were removed. This was done, and the president signed the proclamation.

Good Thoughts for Good People

True worth, or dignity, can never be confused with, or mistaken for, at self-contained pride expressed through a false sense of self which affords or else refuses to mix with fellows—true worth is a spiritual, not a material quality. It reflects divine Love as no merely intellectual culture can possibly do.

The Christian Science Monitor.

Be noble! and the nobleness that rests in other men, sleeping, but ever dead. Will rise in majesty to set thine own.

Lowell.

Where you are is of no moment but what you are doing there. It is not the place that ennobles you, it is you the place; and this only by doing what is great and noble.

Petrarch.

The origin of all mankind was the same; it is only a clear and good conscience that makes a man noble, that is derived from heaven itself.

Seneca.

For this cause we also... do not pray for you and to desire that we might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; That we might walk worthy of the Lord in all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God.

ACIAL BLEMISHES DISAPPEAR AFTER TAKING KAVATONE

Kalamazoo Lady Much Happier Since Pimples and Eruptions Disappeared from Face.

That Kavatone has proved a blessing in many ways to people is proven after time by the almost constant stream of people who call on the Kavatone Man and tell of their experience. Mrs. J. H. June, R. F. D. 2, Kalamazoo, Michigan has been bothered by stomach trouble culminating in skin eruptions and muddy, sallow complexion. How she found new health is a most interesting story.

MRS. J. H. JUNE

"Recently my face has been covered with pimples and eruptions as the result of stomach trouble," said Mrs. June. "I was badly constipated and almost dreaded to see night come as I mean suffering and bad dreams. There were sharp pains that would shoot through my stomach and sometimes it would feel like I had swallowed a hot needle. I became very nervous and would jump and start at any sudden noise. This condition finally got on my nerves to such an extent that I was constantly cross and irritable.

"The Kavatone Man told me one day of this wonderful preparation and advised me to try it to relieve my condition. I started to take this medicine according to directions and was simply amazed at the marvelous change it wrought. In a short time my skin had cleared up and the pimples and eruptions vanished. My disposition improved too and I found that my stomach and kidney trouble had vanished along with the blemishes on my skin. I have found Kavatone a fine and strong blood purifier and a dandy tonic."

"Hills and ailments incident to the liver, kidneys, stomach and bowels such as rheumatism, neuritis, nervousness, constipation and such like afflictions are being conquered and permanently eliminated by Kavatone wherever it has been introduced. Almost every day the Kavatone Man receives word of some man or woman who had suffered for years and tried many things without result until Kavatone came to the rescue.

"The Kavatone Man is located at the FORD HOPKINS CO., DIXON, ILLINOIS, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this great preparation. The Kavatone Man is at the store primarily to answer questions regarding his product and to be of service in any way he can. Everyone is cordially invited to call at the store, get acquainted with The Kavatone Man and hear the amazing story of this medicinal product.—Adv.

"Used in Our Family For Three Generations"

Spencer, Ind. — "I can heartily recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has been used in our family for three generations. My mother used it in expectant periods, at one time she felt she could never live through the ordeal. Mrs. Etta Miller again so began taking the 'Prescription'; used it right up to the last. Her family physician asked why she was so much better this time than ever before. She told him, and he said, 'It is a good medicine.' 'I have used the 'Prescription' and it keeps me from being so nervous. 'My two daughters also have used it with very best results.'—Mrs. Etta Miller, Route 1, Box 98, All dealers.

H. C. Dixon was born at Kirkland, Ill., July 11, 1859 and grew to manhood in that vicinity. At an early age he served apprenticeship as journeyman at DeKalb, Illinois, which occupation he followed for a number of years.
In 1893 he was united in marriage to Miss Nettie M. Campbell of Cleveland, Ohio. Three children were born to this union, one of which died in infancy.

In 1899 he moved to Dixon where he entered business in which he remained until 1917 when he went to Chicago where he was employed in government work.

During the time he resided in Dixon he served two terms as alderman, having filled this capacity in a most trustworthy and efficient manner.

In May 1929, his health having failed he returned to his home in this city where he remained until death took him.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his widow, two sons, Paul and Ralph of Chicago, three grand children Mrs. Patrick Harrison, Hugh Dixon, Cora Dixon, his mother who is nearly one hundred years of age, a sister, Mrs. S. L. Johnson of Rockford, Ill., a brother La Vant of Toronto, Canada, besides a host of friends and neighbors who will greatly miss him.

On Sunday morning, Feb. 9, at 4:10 he closed his eyes to the things of this world.

His entire family was with him to the end and all that loving hands could was done for him.

Baseball Gossip

BY GEORGE KIRKSEY

United Press Staff Correspondent

New York, Feb. 14.—(UP)—Twelve new players have been added to the world champion Philadelphia Athletics in preparation for the 1930 pennant race, but none of them may break into the regular lineup.

Barring injuries and illness, the Athletics probably will begin the season with practically the same group of players which won the American League flag by 18 games and crushed the Chicago Cubs in the world series, four games to one.

In acquiring new players, Connie Mack seems to be preparing for the time when the veterans of his 1929 club will have to step aside rather than for the approaching season.

Six of the Athletics' dozen newcomers are under 21. Of the entire group only one, Wally Schang, is a veteran. Schang, 39, comes back to the A's from the St. Louis Browns in exchange for third baseman Sammy Hale. Schang is quite likely to replace Ralph Perkins as second-string catcher. Micky Cochrane again will do the bulk of the catching.

Little change is expected in the pitching staff. Bob Grove, George Earnshaw and Rube Walberg will share the pitching burden, assisted by Bill Shores, Ed Rommel, Jack Quinn and Howard Ehmke.

There are, however, three bright prospects among the six new pitchers. They are LeRoy Mahaffey from Portland, who has brief trials with Pittsburgh in 1929 and 1927; John McGraw from Omaha; and Glenn Liebhart, Jr., of Des Moines, Ia., son of a former American League pitcher.

Mahaffey won 21 games and lost 24 last season. He pitched 358 innings and fanned 172 batters, being second in both respects among Pacific Coast League pitchers.

In his first year of professional baseball last season with Omaha, McGraw won 24 games and lost 10. Liebhart, also in his first year with Des Moines, won 11 and lost 8 for a last-place team.

The other three additions to the pitching staff are George Shider, 18-year-old youngster from Portland; Alfred Mahon, a young southpaw signed as a free agent; and Alfred Jones, a free-agent who played with Martinsburg, W. Va., last season.

There is a possibility of some change in the Athletics' infield if Max Bishop's eyes bother him or Joe Boley is not in tip-top shape. If these two veterans are well and sound, the infield will again be composed of Fox at first, Bishop at second, Boley at short and Dykes at third.

If Bishop has to be replaced, Dykes may be shifted to second, Fox from first to third, and Jim Keeley a hard-hitting first baseman from Portland stationed at the initial sack. Keeley was the best first-sacker in the Pacific Coast.

ENGINEER CALLS
FAMOUS KONJOLA
GREAT MEDICINE

Rheumatism Almost Prevented Him from Walking—Then New Compound Came to Rescue.

MR. A. W. CATLOW.

"I heard a great deal about Konjola," said Mr. A. W. Catlow, 200 West Station street, Barrington, a suburb of Chicago, "but I was certainly not prepared for the wonderful results it gave me. When I think how I suffered for the last eight years I wonder now I should have known it. Rheumatism had become the bane of my life. Four months ago my limbs swelled and pained so much that I couldn't put my foot to the floor. Stomach trouble and constipation also caused much misery.

"After everything else I tried had failed, Konjola proved to be a different medicine. I found it to be a pure, wholesome remedy—the medicine I always needed. In four weeks the swelling and pains disappeared. My digestion was restored and I was back on my engine on the Northwestern Railroad. Konjola can count on me as a life-long friend."

League last year. He batted .346, driving out 244 hits for a total of 349 bases.

Eric McNair, crack 20-year old shortstop who came up from the Knoxville (Sally League) club, via Memphis, last season and broke into a few games, is expected to be Boley's substitute. McNair batted .391 in 134 games in the Sally League last season.

There are three other young infielders—Roger Cramer, who led the Blue Ridge League in batting last season with a mark of .383; Roy Tarr, who batted .320 for the McCook (Nebraska State League) Club; and Dibrrell Williams, who batted .264 for the Little Rock Southern League club. Tarr and Williams are 20 and Cramer 22.

It is in the outfield the Athletics need a capable utility player. Tom Oliver, Southern League rookie who was the only new outfielder, has been shipped to the Boston Red Sox. Simmons, Haas and Miller again will compose the regular trio, but Homer Summa will be the only reserve unless Bevo Lebourveau is retained.

New York, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Peace in the Brooklyn National League camp is not helping in getting first-string players to mail in their signed contracts.

Unofficial advisers indicated that to a contract are Dazzy Vance, Babe Dodgers yet to affix their signatures. Herman, William Watson Clark, Ray Moss, Clise Dudley, Adolfo Luque, Hank Deberry, Val Picinich, A'onsio Lopez, Deddie Moore, Jack Warner, Johnny Frederick, Harvey Hendrick, Rube Bressler and Wally Gilbert. About the only players signed are recruits.

Havana, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Adolfo Luque, veteran Cuban pitcher recently traded by the Cincinnati Reds to the Brooklyn Robins, has returned his 1930 contract to Brooklyn unsigned. Luque said yesterday that the Robins had made a cut in his salary and that he did not intend to accept it as he believed he was worth more.

New York, Feb. 14.—(AP)—The advance guard of the New York Giants leaves today for San Antonio, Texas, training ground.

Fifteen more members of the team will join the party at St. Louis tomorrow. Seven Giants remain unsigned: Larry Benton and Jack Scott, pitchers; Bob O'Farrell, catcher; Bill Terry, Travis Jackson and Freddie Lindstrom, infielders, and Ed Roush, outfielder.

SPORT BRIEFS

By United Press

Madison, Wis.—Four members of the University of Wisconsin track and field team have been declared ineligible because of scholastic difficulties. They are Greg Kabat, shot putter; and Owen Hubbell, Einar Lund and Kenneth Lemmer, pole vaulters.

Iowa City—A new code of eligibility rules, to supplant the ones which were partly responsible for the institution's ouster from the Western Conference, probably will be drawn up today when the University of Iowa Athletic Council meets for the first time since the Hawkeyes were reinstated into the Big Ten. Determination of Iowa's policy in regard to Big Ten Competition for the remainder of the season, also was on the schedule.

Bloomington, Ill.—Cotton Tierney, former star infielder in the National League, has been signed to pilot the Joplin, Mo., Western Association ball club in 1930, it has been announced here.

San Francisco, Calif.—Roy Reigels, center on the University of California football team last fall, has been signed to assist head coach "Nibs" Price in developing the institution's eleven next fall. It was announced by athletic officials today. Reigels is the chap who ran the wrong way to give Georgia Tech the touchdown which beat the Golden Bears out of the 1928 national gridiron title.

Chicago—Earl Grace, catcher with the Chicago Cubs last season, has been returned to the Reading club in the International League. President William Veck of the Cubs revealed today. The Cubs obtained Grace on option last season when their catching staff was depleted because of Gabby Hartnett's injured arm.

Milwaukee, Wis.—A disagreement between opposing coaches featured Wisconsin's 29 to 22 victory over Marquette University's basketball team here last night. An agreement had been reached by Coach Meanwell of Wisconsin and Coach Lite of Marquette that should the Badgers enjoy a fair lead Meanwell would remove his regulars in the second half and in return Lite was to withdraw Andrews, giant center. Leading 25 to 16, Meanwell called out his regulars but Andrews apparently refused to obey the coach's orders and the two mentors met in the center of the floor for a heated argument. The matter was smoothed over and the game proceeded.

Kansas City, Mo.—Dan Koloff, the heavyweight wrestling champion of Bulgaria, defeated Stanley Stasiak, Polish titleholder, here last night winning two out of three falls.

New York—The New York Giants start for their spring training at San Antonio today. Frank Hogan, regular catcher, is the only battery man leaving from New York. He will join other pitchers and catchers at the Giants' headquarters Monday.

Montreal Canadiens 4, Ottawa Senators 4.

New York Rangers 4, Pittsburgh Pirates 1.

Montreal Maroons 6, Detroit Cougars 3 (overtime).

Chicago—A great burst of riding early today allowed Gerard Debaets and Tony Beckman to continue to hold first place in Chicago's 23rd annual international six day bicycle race.

As the race entered its 100th hour, the Belgian-American team was pulled into a triple tie for first place when Horner and Horan and McNamara and Belloni staged spirited rallies. But when the steady pedaling began today, Debaets and Beckman swung into the lead again.

St. Louis—National ranking tennis stars meeting in matches which will in effect decide the unofficial men's indoor championships, feature the two-day program of the forty-ninth annual meeting of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, opening here today.

Francis T. Hunter, George M. Lott Jr., John Van Ryn and Dr. Arthur W. Mamm, member of Canada's 1929 Davis Cup team, are scheduled to appear in matches here tonight.

New York—Maxie Rosenbloom, New York, generally regarded as uncrowned champion of the light heavy weight division, will risk his title hopes in a 10-round bout with Ace Hudkins of Nebraska at Madison Square Garden tonight.

Rosenbloom must win to retain a promised match with Jimmy Slattery, who has been awarded the title by the New York State Athletic Commission. He previously lost a chance to win the title by going outside the ranks of contenders recognized by the Commission and losing to Slattery.

Subsequently, Rosenbloom was dropped from the title tourney and Slattery won the championship. The Commission ruled Slattery must meet Rosenbloom within 60 days but Maxie was not content to wait and is risking the prospect of a title bout by meeting Hudkins.

Hudkins delights in wrestling championship aspirations and although Rosenbloom is an 8 to 5 favorite, many experts are taking the short end of wagers.

Ace is confident that he can defeat Rosenbloom and has bet a large share of his purse on the bout.

With the Cagers

Chicago, Feb. 14.—(AP)—With a second victory in three days at the expense of Marquette, Wisconsin will go after revenge Saturday for its only defeat this season is Big Ten Basketball competition.

Wisconsin will entertain Northwestern's slipping Wildcat and tune-up game at the time that has marked its last six engagements, appears capable of reversing the 23 to 14 victory of Northwestern in the first game of the conference season. The Badgers defeated Marquette last night, 29 to 22, for the second time of the week.

Purdue will go after its fifth straight triumph of the campaign tomorrow against Ohio State at Columbus.

Indiana and Illinois will attempt to set up a two-way tie for third place, the former meeting Chicago at Bloomington, and the Illini engaging Minnesota at Champaign. A victory for the Hoosiers and Indiana would leave Michigan, idle this week, alone in fourth place.

Both Teams Will Get Into Action: Locals Hope For Win

The Dixon High School basketball squads journey to Belvidere this evening to play them a twin bill. Coach Sharpe and Asst. Coach Lindell have been putting their charges through a strenuous week of practice and the teams will be in tip top condition to give their opponents the game of their lives.

Belvidere defeated Dixon in their first encounter on the local's home floor by the scores of 17 to 8 and 16 to 8, but the purple and white squads have shown a vast development since then and hope to even the affair by taking both games. When the Heavies defeated DeKalb here last week they showed they had the stuff in them. When they once start making their shots it will be too bad for the opposition. Nothing helps a team as much as having a local crowd yelling for them and it is their earnest hope that all the fans who possibly can will attend the games. The contests are called for 7:30 o'clock. ST. LOUIS PAPER GIVES SHERIFF OF LEE A WRITE-UP

Sports Columnist Recalls Miller's Time In Big Leagues

The following clipping from the Hot Stove column of the sporting department of a St. Louis daily is of considerable interest, and is about Sheriff Ward Miller:

How many of the little fans and fanettes in the class room today remember Ward Miller? Ward once chased flies over a lot of major league outfielders, and became so incensed with the chasing habit that he couldn't quit when he left baseball. If you are a bootlegger or rum-runner, or have any near and dear friends who are, better tip them to stay away from Lee county in Illinois.

Ward Miller—Sheriff Ward Miller to be grammatical and historical—is now engaged in chasing b-leggers and r-runners out of that snappy little county. Where Ward's name once adorned the box scores, it's now found in the editorial columns, which commend his ability to nab the boys who deal in anything harder than chocolate fizzes. Pegging rum runners is something like throwing out base runners, the sheriff finds.

You've got to have a rifle for one, and a rifle arm for the other. A sheriff and an outfielder must be quick on the trigger, and shoot to the right base. Otherwise the runner goes home or the runner goes to the next county.

Uncle Sam is watching Sheriff Miller as a possible rookie to be drafted for the Federal Prohibition league. Ward once hopped to the Federal league but that was before prohibition became a fad, or whatever it is. Jim Bottomley, Rogers Hornsby, et al, may be showing the county something about driving in runs, but Sheriff Ward Miller is showing Lee county a lot of things about driving in the six-dollars-a-pint boys.

Church Basketball Tourney Is Planned

The Young Men's Christian association of Elgin is sponsoring a basketball tournament to be held about the middle of March at their gymnasium, to which church teams of the entire northern part of Illinois will be invited to participate. Physical Director Arthur G. Wild in a letter to the Telegraph outlines the plan for the tournament and entry blanks may be procured by writing him at the Elgin association at once.

"There has been a demand for some sort of Northern Illinois church basketball tournament and it is our plan to promote an activity of this sort. This type of tournament would determine the champion among the churches of Northern Illinois and it may develop into a state proposition, whereby other cities might later take up the idea and conduct church tournaments in their respective districts and then the playoff for the state take place after that."

"Other localities have attempted similar affairs and they have proven successful. Surely there are some churches in Dixon or neighboring towns who would like to enter competition of this sort."

"GOAT" OF ROSE BOWL GAME MADE ASST. TO COACH

Roy Riegels, California Player, Honored By His Alma Mater

San Francisco, Feb. 13.—(AP)—It was just one year, one month and thirteen days ago today that those who find their thrills in football gasped, sighed and laughed alternately at the antics of a blonde young giant by the name of Roy Riegels, who just had run 75-yards the wrong way to pull one of the prize "boners" in all gridiron history.

Today, Roy Riegels, with the brand new title of Assistant Football Coach at his alma mater, the University of California, laughed, not last but at last, at the football misfortunes that were his.

Strictly on the merits of his great playing last season, when as Captain and center he led California to a four-way tie for the Pacific Coast Conference championship, was Riegels chosen to help mold future Bear elevens. His appointment was announced last night by the executive committee of the associated students.

Riegels' run will never be forgotten and, a review, briefly, is essential. The place, Pasadena's Rose Bowl. The occasion, Georgia Tech vs. California in keen inter-sectional rivalry. The time—New Year's Day of 1929.

The Prize "Boner"
Out of the scramble of legs and arms popped the football, fumbled by a Georgia Tech man, Riegels, playing a fierce game at center, scooped up the oval and began a goalward dash. Only he ran the wrong way—toward the goal line defended by California.

Deaf to the shouts of his team mates, Riegels thundered down the field, running as he never had before. Only Benny Lom, fleet half-back, was able to overtake him at the two yard line. Realizing then, his mistake, Riegels turned, but opposing tacklers swarmed over him.

On the next play, Lom tried to kick out of danger from behind his own goal line. The kick was blocked and Georgia Tech scored two points on a safety. Only two points, but it cost California's Bears a victory. The 8-7 defeat and the incident leading up to it were charged off to "breaks" of the game and Riegels' teammates promptly showed their faith in the young fellow by electing him captain for the ensuing season.

ROCHELLE NEWS

Rochelle—Harold Eldred, Commander of the 13th district of the American Legion of Sterling, tendered his resignation to the department of Illinois, Monday, and John W. Nelson, of Rochelle, vice commander, will be his successor as soon as the appointment can be confirmed. John W. Nelson has been adjutant of Rochelle Post prior to his district appointment and is a "go-getter" in Legion affairs. He is now post service officer and 13th district service officer and stands high in the councils of the state department.

Only routine business was considered at Monday night's council meeting according to Mayor J. A. Herrmann. This was the first meeting with the reduced number, the Council now consisting of D. W. Taylor, commissioner of public property; Theodore Schade, commissioner of public safety; M. L. Pickle, commissioner of streets.

City Clerk R. L. Heydacker was in Rockford on Monday.

Beautiful and impressive were the last rites for Mrs. Alfred T. Hustler which were held from the Presbyterian church, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Frank A. Campbell read the obituary and gave a splendid eulogy of the deceased which was followed by the Eastern Star service. A profusion of floral tributes attested the love of the community for this resident of ten years. The pall bearers were: George Grieve, Walter Kelley, R. E. Anderson and Charles Hathaway. Burial was made in Lawnside cemetery.

Funeral services for Harry Peterson, aged 37, who died at the Lincoln hospital here Sunday evening, were held Wednesday afternoon from the home. The deceased is survived by his widow, a son, two daughters and his father and a brother, Frank, of DeKalb. Executives and employees of the Geo. D. Whitcomb Co. honored a fellow-employee Tuesday afternoon, by presenting A. Peterson with a purse containing $125.00.

An exceedingly well attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Ogle County American Legion was held at Oregon Monday night. There were twenty-three Legionnaires in attendance. Rochelle was represented by Harold Stevens, Harold Palmer, John W. Nelson, Charles Hanson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Anderson will attend the Lumberman's Convention in Chicago, Feb. 13-15 inclusive. Mr. Anderson represents the local yard of the J. H. Patterson Co., of which he is manager.

Miss Lu Bain and Mrs. Lucy King Miller, of Kings, won high score prizes at the dinner-bridge party of Mesdames L. W. Masters and Martin Barnett held at the home of the former Monday evening. Mesdames Masters and Barnett will entertain another company of ladies at a similar party at the home of Mrs. Masters Thursday evening.

Rogene Oakes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oakes, is ill with the measles.

Mrs. W. B. Maley was confined to her bed Monday on account of illness.

The regular meeting of Service Club has been postponed until Friday. The ladies will meet with Mrs. R. E. Anderson.

Diplomats Warned Of New "Racket"

Washington, Feb. (AP)—Every embassy and legation in Washington has been warned by special details of police to beware of a short, dark stranger with a penchant for separating prominent men from sums of $100 each.

The diplomats were told the stranger promises, in return for such a sum to see to it that the name of each client is made socially prominent. The police action came at the request of the State Department. Ambassador Orestes Ferrara of Cuba was approached by the stranger and requested details.

"Why practically everybody in public life in Washington is a client of mine," said the short, dark man. "They pay me $100, sign in this book, and all the society editors everywhere say nice things about them."

He showed the Ambassador a book. The names of several Senators and Congressmen appeared on the dotted line. One was Herr Friedrich Von Prittwitz und Gaffon, Ambassador of Germany. Dr. Ferrara called the Ambassador.

"Forgery," Herr Von Prittwitz said. "I never heard of the fellow before." Now, not only Ambassador Ferrara but some 53 other Ambassadors and ministers are ready for the short, dark stranger.

Traffic Lights Go Strong On Expense

CHICAGO—(UP)—Stop-and-go lights are "stopping" Chicago's traffic congestion in the loop, but they are "going" strong on the expenses over the country at large. Most of the $2,000,000,000 annual loss to the country through traffic congestion is due principally to the stop-and-go light. According to Leslie Sorensen, city traffic engineer, and Robert H. Nau of the Chicago Association of Commerce, who claim that the lights expedite traffic about 25 per cent here.

The no-parking ban has also been aid in speeding up movement in the loop. The biggest difficulty is control of pedestrian traffic and the jamming caused by "U" turns in the middle of blocks.

The estimate of $2,000,000,000 was taken from a report made to the National Conference on Street and Highway Safety. In the report there was a statement by Secretary of Commerce Robert P. Lamont to the effect that the loss "may equal our annual expenditures for the construction and maintenance of traffic facilities."

A study of the conditions in Hartford, Conn., made by engineers of Yale university, showed that traffic signals cost motorists $18,000 a day. In New York city the estimate is nearly $1,000,000 a day.

ERRORGRAMS

Thy's Scrambled

SILTNYANT

Doesn't take a moment.

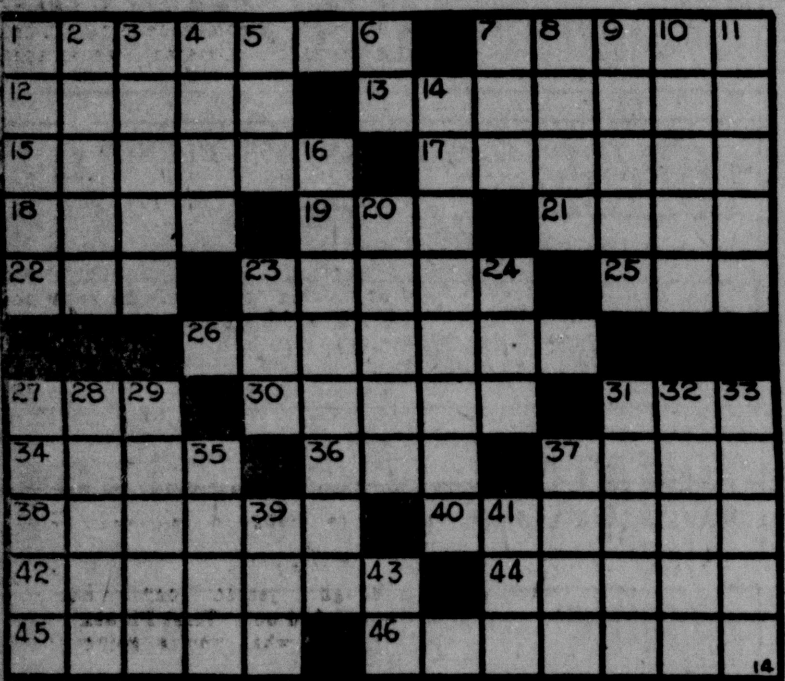

(Copyright, 1930, NEA Service, Inc.)

There are at least four mistakes in the above picture. They may pertain to grammar, history, etiquette, drawing or whatnot. See if you can find them. Then look at the scrambled word below—and unscramble it, by switching the letters around. Grade yourself 20 for each of the mistakes you find, and 20 for the word if you unscramble it. Tomorrow we'll explain the mistakes and tell you the word. Then you can see how near a hundred you bat.

THURSDAY'S CORRECTIONS

(1) Weasel is spelled incorrectly. (2) The Cuffs on the coat of the girl at the left, do not match. (3) The collar on the coat at the right is black, while genuine ermine is white. (4) The mirror posts do not match. (5) The scrambled word is DEGREE.

As Threatened Sub Reached Port

Aground for several hours in a heavy snowstorm near the entrance to Portsmouth, N. H. harbor, and threatened with disaster, the navy submarine -3, pictured above after it had been safely towed into port, escaped lightly. Here you see members of the crew examining the vessel, which sustained only several leaking tanks and bent plates amidship in the accident.

Subscribers should take advantage of our magazine offer. Call No. 5 for information. Dixon Evening Telegraph. If you have one of the Telegraph's Accident Insurance Policies and are laid up from auto accident you will receive $10 a week for 15 weeks.

CARP SALES TOTAL $12,000

Pierre, S. D. (UP)—Approximately $12,000 will be paid the state of South Dakota from the sale of carp removed from lakes during the past winter. O. H. Johnson, director of the state game and fish department reported today. Fish removal operations included nearly 600,000 pounds of carp. Largest catches were reported from Lake Madison with 294,000 pounds. More than 190,000 pounds were taken from Lake Hendricks and 92,000 pounds from Lake Andes.

Judith was still in the simple black frock she had worn during the afternoon.

Arthur Knight frowned. "I wasn't expecting anyone to night," he said.

Tony had jumped to her feet. "I'll find out who it is," she said. "Maybe Mr. Hunter's come again."

The senior member of the firm of Hunter Brothers and several other of Knight's business associates had paid him brief visits. Arthur Knight was weak still. The slightest unexpected happening disturbed him. As Tony bounded out of the room his eyes followed her anxiously.

Judith said nothing but looked troubled.

"Why—it's Bert!" shrieked Tony from the hall window. "He's driving around to the garage."

"Bert?"

Both Judith and Arthur joined in the exclamation, but Judith's cry was faint and startled while her husband's was stern.

"I don't understand why he's had the car out," Arthur continued. "Did you send him anywhere, Judith?"

She shook her head negatively. Under the long-fringed lashes it was difficult to read the expression in the girl's eyes.

Tony was back in the room. She helped herself to coffee and bore the cup to the davenport. Once more she curled up beside her father.

MRS. LOLA OSBORNE.

"The rheumatism in my limbs and ankles caused my joints to swell out of proportion and it pained me terribly," continued Mrs. Osborne. "Every muscle and joint in my entire body seemed affected and during any extreme change in the weather my whole body would ache and pain something awful. I had heard so much of Gly-Cas that I began taking it and I can say the results if given are not to be doubted."

"In a month's time Gly-Cas took the swelling out of the affected parts of my body and has entirely relieved the soreness. I actually have as good use of my body now as any person who has never had rheumatism. That old aching feeling of a system poisoned from rheumatism has left me and as for my general health I never felt better in my life. After lingering for fifteen years it is really surprising to get the results which Gly-Cas has given me, when a remedy will banish rheumatism like I had there is no doubt as to its merit. My advice to rheumatic sufferers is to give Gly-Cas a trial and know how it feels to be free of rheumatism."

You, too, can enjoy good health if suffering with stomach, liver, kidney, bowel or nerve troubles, rheumatism, neuritis, Gly-Cas acts like magic in relieving even the most stubborn cases."

A letter from Judith arrives at the house and Tony takes it. Later she follows Judith on a trip into the city and sees her meet a young man. Tony reaches home before Judith.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXXVIII THERE came the sound of a car in the driveway.

Arthur Knight, Tony and Judith were all in the living room—Arthur and Tony sitting on the davenport, with the mellow-glowing bridge lamp shooting highlights into the girl's dark curls. Judith, at the coffee table, was pouring the fragrant beverage into three fragile cups.

She set down the silver coffee pot. "Who's coming?" she asked. "I didn't know anyone was expected. I hate to be seen this way."

Judith was still in the simple black frock she had worn during the afternoon.

Arthur Knight frowned. "I wasn't expecting anyone to night," he said.

Tony had jumped to her feet. "I'll find out who it is," she said. "Maybe Mr. Hunter's come again."

MUSIC LESSONS GIVEN TO POOR BY FOUNDATION

St. Louis Organization
Completes Three Years of Service

St. Louis—(UP)—That the means of acquiring culture should be available to all is the basis upon which the Community Music Schools Foundation has conducted three years of successful work in St. Louis. It is seeking to do for the music lovers of the community what the art museums, the public libraries and universities do for other phases of art. It is seeking to solve individual and social problems by giving eighty-three men, women and children the opportunity to study music, people who would otherwise be unable to enjoy such instruction. "As a combat of crime, music has no equal," said Dr. Percival Chubb, a member of the board of directors. "Music can tame wild beasts, and we certainly need its influence to tame the wild civilization which has developed in our modern cities. The boy or girl who sings, or plays a musical instrument, has a source of recreation which is far superior to any passive recreation which can be offered. It gives him an opportunity to entertain himself and at the same time develop his personality. "I firmly believe that music is one of the greatest needs in America at the present time to combat the crime, the deadly monotony and routine of industrial life, and the lack of community life. Other cities have for years recognized the necessity of community music and the creation of musical opportunities for those who wish them." One of the oldest music lovers benefited by the foundation is a Russian immigrant grandmother, learning to play the piano. Well past 50, with hands stiff from years of drudgery, unable to speak English well, and in extremely limited circumstances, she has found joy in satisfying a life-long ambition. Once a week she takes a piano lesson from a foundation teacher, and in her own home on a second or third hand piano which she has managed to purchase she practices diligently. The twenty-five cents a week which she pays for her lesson is a sacrifice. A young girl who works in a department store is being given harp lessons through the foundation. Her mother is a harpist, and her father is a harp maker, but through family estrangement, the girl was thrown on her own responsibility, and although she knew how to play the harp, she could not afford one. The foundation is furnishing her a rented instrument, and a teacher. She is often heard over the radio. The foundation is not merely trying to assist the musically gifted students to obtain the necessary training to develop their talents. Its more far-reaching object is to make music a part of the lives of those who long for it.

American Held For Accident In China

Shanghai, Feb. 13.—(AP)—Authorities here today learned of a case involving an American missionary in a fatal automobile accident in Tunchow, Kiangsu province, which may have a bearing on China's recent determination to abolish extra-territoriality. It was learned that A. H. Smith, a missionary of the Christian Reformed Church, which has American headquarters at Grand Rapids, Mich., had surrendered himself to a Chinese court at Tunchow for trial as a result of the death of a Chinese boy in an automobile accident. Smith, according to information received by missionaries here, was driving the motor car which accidentally struck the young Chinese. The accident occurred January 29. American Consular authorities at Nanking sent a destroyer from Nanking to Tunchow Tuesday bearing a consular official who investigated the affair and sent his findings to the American Legation in Peking. It is understood Smith was released pending trial, the date for which is unknown here. The attitude of American officials toward the case also is not known.
